SEPTEMBER 10, 2010 | 1ST ANNUAL CLADDAGH FUND CELEBRITY GOLF TOURNAMENT | CAPE COD, MA

The 1st Annual Claddagh Fund Celebrity Golf Tournament co-hosted by Bobby Orr, NHL Hall of Famer, and Ken Casey of the Dropkick Murphys went down this past weekend in Cape Cod, MA. The players had their choice of two of the most beautiful and prestigious golf clubs in New England, the Golf Club of Cape Cod or Ballymeade Country Club.

Electric hosted hole 16 on the Ballymeade course which happened to be a hole-in-one hole worth $10,000. Not only were players excited for the chance at the cash but they also got excited to get hooked up with some free Electric schwag and refreshments while hanging out at what came to be the most popular hole of the day.

Bobby Orr and Ken Casey weren't on a team and instead cruised around both courses all day playing holes with each team.

Things got pretty exciting when they stopped by our hole and Bobby had fun trying on and picking out some new shades for himself.

Following the tournament there were raffles and a silent auction which helped raise money for the Claddagh Fund. The Claddagh Fund provides assistance to organizations that share in the three attributes symbolized in the Claddagh ring friendship, love and loyalty. The Fund provides assistance to organizations that share in these goals, prioritizing the needs of children, veterans, and their families and the most vulnerable populations in our community.

Electric would like to thank everyone who came out to support such a great event and organization. See you next year!
